

New Hope High School Summer Reading 2012

Each student must read the required selection for his or her grade level. Pre-AP and AP English students must also read at least one of the books on the student selected list. Each student will be required to complete a book project on his/her selected novel during the first week of school in August. Each grade level teacher will decide how the required test will be assessed. Copies of the chosen novels can be ordered below, plus teachers may have a few copies available for loan only for those students who will not be able to purchase their own copies.

Fill out and return order form with payment to school by: Monday, May 7th
 The books will be delivered back to you before school lets out for the summer.
 Make checks payable to: Barnes & Noble
