SHOW YOUR LOVE for your library by joining Friends of the Library. We have FOL groups at all 12 Huntsville-Madison County Public Library branches. You may pick your favorite branch to join, or multiply your gift by joining two or more groups. Thanks for your support!

CONNECT TO THE FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY

YOUR LIBRARY...

FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY members have given more than 50 years of support to the Huntsville-Madison County Public Library in many ways:

- Bookstores selling gently used fiction, non-fiction, magazines, music, videos
- Summer reading programs
- Weekly children's story hours
- Fundraising events for collections, audiovisual equipment, furnishings
- Special sales of used books
- Library staff scholarship awards
- Student awards
- Volunteer support for staff
- Adult classes and programs
- Author forums and lectures
- Craft programs for teens and adults

YOUR FUTURE...

BECOME A FRIENDS OF THE LIBRARY MEMBER TODAY! Our membership drive happens each April, but you may join FOL at any time, and your membership will be good for a full year. Annual dues per branch are $15 for students/senior citizens, $20 for other individuals, or $25 for families (immediate family members only). Additional donations are always welcome.

There are two ways to join:

1. Mail your dues with the membership response form in the enclosed envelope. Designate the Friends branch or branches you wish to join. (Dues are required for each branch you join.) Forms are also available at your library.
2. Join online at hmcpl.org/FOL.

Please call 256-532-2361 for more information.
