Crown Him with Many Crowns

Dr. Clarence Scott, Organist

1. Crown Him with man - y crowns, The Lamb up - on His throne;
2. Crown Him the Lord of life, Who tri - umphed o'er the grave,
3. Crown Him the Lord of peace, Whose power a scep - ter sways
4. Crown Him the Lord of love; Be - hold His hands and side,

Hark! how the heaven - ly an - them drowns All mu - sic but its own.
And rose vic - to - rious in the strife For those He came to save;
From pole to pole, that wars may cease, And all be prayer and praise;
Those wounds, yet vis - i - ble a - bove, In beau - ty glo - ri - fied.

A - wake, my soul and sing Of Him who died for thee, And His glo - ries now we sing Who died, and rose on high, Who
His reign shall know no end, And round His pier - ed feet Fair
All hail, Re - deem - er, hail! For Thou hast died for me; Thy

ASCENSION

Crown Him with Many Crowns

Handwritten musical score for the hymn "Crown Him with Many Crowns". The score is written on five staves, each with a treble clef and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The lyrics are written below the staves. The first staff begins with the lyrics "Crown him with many crowns, O Jesus Christ our King". The second staff continues with "Who didst thyself for us, and bleed and die". The third staff continues with "To save us from all sin, and from the power of the grave". The fourth staff continues with "To raise us from the dead, and to give us life". The fifth staff continues with "Forevermore, Amen." The handwriting is in cursive and appears to be from a personal or church record book.

- Jesus shall reign where'er the sun
Does his successive journeys run;
His kingdom spread from shore to shore,
Till moons shall wax and wane no more.
- Let ev'ry creature rise and bring
His grateful honors to our King;
Angels descend with songs again,
And earth repeat the loud "Amen!"

A photograph of several green palm fronds resting on a floor made of reddish-brown tiles. The fronds are long and slender, with some showing small white flowers. The tiles are irregular in shape and color, with some darker spots. The lighting creates soft shadows on the tiles.

BENEATH THE CROSS OF JESUS

*Beneath the cross of Jesus I fain would take my stand,
The Shadow of the mighty Rock Within a weary land;
A home within the wilderness, A rest upon the way,
From the burning of the noontide heat, And the burden of the day.*

*Upon the cross of Jesus Mine eye at times can see
The very dying form of One who suffered there for me;
And from my stricken heart with tears Two wonders I confess;
The wonders of redeeming love And my unworthiness.*

*I take, O cross, thy shadow For my abiding place;
I ask no other sunshine than The sunshine of His face;
Content to let the world go by, To know no gain nor loss,
My sinful self my only shame, My glory all the cross.*
